

University of Brighton

School of Health Sciences

Sustainability Special Interest Group 5th Annual Conference

3 May 2019

Checkland C122 Falmer campus University of Brighton

Sustainability and Health: Small Steps, Big Changes

blogs.brighton.ac.uk/sustainabilityhealth

SustainabilitySHS@brighton.ac.uk

Keynote speaker:

Sonia Roschnik, Director Sustainable Development Unit

Oral presentations and posters about research, practice and education related to sustainable health and healthcare

Exhibitor tables and networking time

MONARCH PARTNERSHIP
Utilities simplified

HEALTHY
FUTURES

RESPONSIBLE
FUTURES

Time	Presenters	Presentation Title
09:30	Registration
10:00	Welcome address
10:15	Jennie Aronsson & Janet Richardson	Can sustainability sessions in undergraduate nurse education influence practice?
10:35	Tania Wiseman	Sustainable later leisure lifestyles
10:55	Stephen Wythe & Jonathon Groome	Barts Health PVC recycling project
11:15 – 11:40 Refreshments, posters and exhibitor tables
11:40	Jackie Matthews	Operation Smile
12:00	Peter Allum	An ethnographic study of sustainability attitudes and behaviour amongst operational NHS Ambulance staff
12:20	Fiona McNeill	Use of consumer-level wearable devices for measurement of health-related data. A bilateral scoping review
12:40	Sabrina Carter	Sustainability in acute mental health practice: tackling waste from the ocean to the ward
13:00 – 14:00 Lunch, posters and exhibitor tables
14:00	Keynote speaker: Sonia Roschnik	Sustainable development in health – small steps and big changes
14:30	Helen Herrera	Household disposal of unwanted medicines and environmental pollution.
14:50	Chantelle Rizen	The carbon footprint of operating theatres: a systematic review
15:10	Movement break
15:20	Lucy Colwell, Jamie Cooper & Nana Tomova	Getting it right: Towards sustainable solutions in Motivational Interviewing Education for inter professional working
15:40	Hayley Carmichael & Susie Vernon	Many actions can create big change
16:00-16:10	Prof Debra Humphris Vice-Chancellor	Prizes and closing address